Pond—Joseph W. Williams.
Subscribers will save the trouble of letter-writing by paying their subscriptions to the Agent at their place.

Correspondents will please send Letters so far as possible to the Editor of THE LEDGER, care of the Post Office, Maysville, Ky. Give facts in as few words as possible. We want news in this department, and not advertising notices or political arguments.

MORANBURG.

Mrs. W. R. Lloyd returned home from Dover Monday where she had been visiting her mother, Mrs. Best.

The ladies out here are keeping cool. A wagon load of H. C. Barkley's fans were distributed among them last Tuesday.

William Brittain, Button Chamberlain, Ray Ricketts and John Wells are at the river trying their luck fishing. They have caught one about that long.

The stock water at the Burg has about given out, but there is plenty at the bridge.

VANCEBURG.

Miss Maggie Sparks is spending a few days in the city.

E. H. Fitch of Huntington spent Sunday with his friends here.

Y. M. Stricklett of Cincinnati is on a visit to his brother, L. M. Stricklett.

Professor J. C. Graham of Portsmouth is spending a few days at Esculapia and Glen Springs.

Miss Mortina Agnew of Covington is the guest of Miss Olivia Carter at the Carter House.

Misses Birdie and Bertha Carter will leave for Polo, Mo., Sunday to visit F. M. and D. B. Carter.

Vanceburg will be represented at the Maysville Fair each day next week by a large crowd of people.

Mrs. Cline who has been quite sick is now much improved and the chances are good for her recovery.

V. H. Perkins of Lexington was calling on his many friends here Wednesday. Come again, Bud, we are always glad to see you.

Mr. Harris from Winchester will occupy the building owned by W. C. Ford and will continue the jewelry business at the old stand.

Miss Hattie McCormick, an accomplished and beautiful young lady from Flemingsburg, is the guest of W. L. Fitch and family.

Quite a large crowd was in attendance at County Court Monday. Much stock was sold at moderate prices. Vanceburg will soon equal Flemingsburg as a stock market.

W. C. Ward and family will leave for Winchester, looking to make it their future home. We wish him success but are sorry to lose such a good citizen from our town.

Miss Lizzie Diehl, a very worthy lady who taught in the Riverside Seminary here last year, died at her home in South Carolina on August 6th. We are very sorry to learn this. Miss Lizzie had a host of friends here, and they extend a hand of sympathy to the bereaved parents.

PARENTAL objection caused two prominent Kentucky lovers, John Glover and Miss Lucy Rickman, both of Grackley, to seek Clarksville, Tenn., as a Gretna Green. They were wedded in the parlor of the Arlington Hotel at noon and returned home in the evening.

CAPTAIN MEREDITH, Chief of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, will propose to Secretary of the Treasury Foster, on the latter's return from Ohio, that the Government prepare and issue a souvenir one-dollar bank note in honor of the anniversary of the discovery of America by Columbus. It will, of course, be a genuine legal tender note, and worth its face, in addition to its value as a souvenir.

FIRE and Accident Ins. W. R. Warder.

Hayswood Female Seminary!

OF COURSE YOU ARE COMING TO THE BLUE RIBBON FAIR

WHICH OCCURS THE WEEK OF AUGUST 23d, 24th, 25th, 26th and 27.

From all indications it will be a grand success. The entries for the fast work comprise a great many of the best trotters and pacers in the country. We being directly associated with the Fair Company, have never spared pains to make it as pleasant for our visitors as we know how. Since we have enlarged our store rooms, making our house the most commodious clothing store in the state, we are enabled to show you such attention as we have long since desired. The crowd will be immense, and in many instances visitors will find it quite handy to have a convenient place to store baggage or parcels for the time being. We have fitted up quite a nice place for the purpose, and when we say that we want you to make our place headquarters during your stay, we mean it in every sense of the word. To those who are acquainted personally with us we hardly need extend the invitation. They know we are glad to see them.

Now just one word about business. It won't take us long to tell you that for the coming season we have the greatest line of goods we ever had, and that means a good deal, for we always carry the best assortment of goods pertaining to our business in the state. When you have nothing else to do, come in and look through our stock; it matters not whether you wish to buy or not. We want to show you what kind you want to buy when you get ready to lay in your Fall supply of clothing. Our specialties for Fair week are Elegant Dress and Negligee Shirts, Collars, Ties and Cuffs, of the very best brands made. The latest and noblest things out in Hats. And young Gentlemen, don't forget that for the hope you want to wear one of our elegant Dress Suits that we rent at reasonable prices. Truly yours,
